To all worthy Companions who may have the honour of an acquaintance with Companion Doct<sup>r</sup> J<sup>m</sup> Beaumont, this may certify that I have been acquainted with him from his youth, and have ever considered him possessor of a benevolent heart, honest and honourable in all his intentions, faithful to his friends and just to his enemies.

He is one who is governed by those truly masonic virtues which are inculcated in our art.

His reputation is unsullied and his professional character stands high in the opinion of those with whom he is acquainted.
